To whom it may concern

Geisenheim, August 2022

Dear Sir, dear Madam,

We hereby confirm for the products listed in the annex that these products are neither derived from animal based raw materials nor are they produced with animal based substances.

There are processes in place to prevent cross-contamination with animal-derived products and/ or by-products or they are not manufactured in the same factory.

We will inform you in advance should the products no longer be in accordance with this confirmation.
